MSA CIRCUIT RACING SSRs CIRCULAR 2 OF 2023

Affected parties should note that SSR 61 of the standing supplementary regulations for circuit racing deals with the subject of incident reports.

For clarity, the following additional information is provided:

- There is no obligation on the clerk of the course to act on any submitted incident report. He/she shall have absolute discretion to decide what, if anything, to do with regard to any submitted incident report.
- Teams/competitors wishing to ensure that an incident is formally investigated, with action possibly being taken as a result, are advised to lodge a formal protest in accordance with the specified procedures, together with payment of the requisite fee.
- Any document submitted that is headed "Protest" but that is not accompanied by the requisite fee shall automatically be treated as an incident report, with no accompanying obligations on the clerk of the course.
