24. PRE-RACE / PADDOCK / PARC FERMÉ

Refer to SARMC SSR's as well as GCR 252:

To clarify, parc-ferme starts at the entrance to the scale when exiting the track, and includes all of the fenced area up to the entrance to the pre-race grid. Entry into this area for competitors, mechanics and karts is only via the gate at the rear of the pre-race grid.

Only the competitor plus one mechanic who are taking part in the race about to be run or that has just finished (kart coming off the track) are allowed into this area, and the mechanic must wear the requisite armband applicable to that kart. Bambino competitors may have one additional assistant. Other team members and entrants are not allowed.

No liquids or tools, apart from a tyre pressure gauge, are allowed onto the form-up grid. Failure to comply will result in the imposition of a penalty determined by the COC.

Revving of karts for longer than 5 seconds in total is not allowed and will be reported to the COC and Stewards for further action.

Smoking and vaping within parc-ferme is not allowed and will be reported to the COC and Stewards for further action.

Competitors must ensure that they arrive at the pre-race grid at least 10 minutes before their race.

Should you fail a fuel test you will be required to refuel with fuel that complies before being allowed to start.

25. STARTS

Starts will be signalled by extinguishing of the red lights. In the event of non-availability of the lights an MSA flag will be used. Refer to SARMC SSR's Article 19.
